SHAUGHNESSY SEEKING BIRTH TO FILL VACANCY

MEMBER STATE RAILROAD COM- MISSION IS AFTER NATIONAL POSITION

Commissioner Shaughnessy of the Nevada railroad commission is seeking appointment to the vacancy on the Interstate commerce commission to the advancement of Franklin K. Lane of California to a place in President Wilson's cabinet. Shaughnessy has sent the following telegram to Washington:

"Carson City, Nev., March 4, 1915.
"Honorable Francisco G. Newlands, United States Senator, and Hon. Key Pittman, United States Senator, Washington, D. C.
"I respectfully ask your favorable consideration of my appointment to the position upon the Interstate commerce commission which will become vacant by the promotion of the Hon. Franklin K. Lane to a position in the president's cabinet. As heretofore, subject to proper qualifications, the appointments of commissioners have been made with some regard to geographical location, I deem it proper to say that I am especially familiar with railroad transportation and traffic conditions in all of the territory lying west of Chicago, and that I can qualify for the position with a wide knowledge of the questions which come before the commission for determination, gained by 15 years' service in the operating department of railroads and six years' service upon the railroad commission of Nevada.
"J. F. SHAUGHNESSY,
"Member of Railroad Commission of Nevada."

FIREMEN ARE ARRANGING FOR ANNUAL BALL

VOLUNTEERS' ASSOCIATION IN NEED OF FUNDS TO LIQUIDATE DATE INDEBTEDNESS

The annual ball of the Volunteer fire department of Tonopah will be given at the Miners' Exchange hall on the evening of Monday, March 24. The proceeds of the function will be used in liquidating the indebtedness of the institution. A committee on arrangements has been appointed and is now at work. A special orchestra will be engaged and the best of music provided for the event.

The annual balls of the volunteers have long been considered as the most successful affairs of the year and it is expected that the coming event will be up to all expectations. The tickets will be placed on sale with all business houses and can also be procured from the members of the department. The department is in need of funds and rather than ask for public subscriptions, it was decided to hold the ball earlier than was anticipated. With a worthy object in view the disposal of the tickets will prove an easy matter.

JOHN L. CARLSON, the Millers merchant, came up from the mill city this morning on a business visit.
